

Round 2 Reporting: Frequently Asked Questions (Session 2026-27)

BAMS / BHMS / BUMS / BNYS, AIQ, State Quota & NRI Quota

A. Reporting Basics

1. I have been allotted a seat in Round 2 What should I do next?

Download your Round 2 Allotment Letter from the official portal after 6:00 PM on 08.10.2026. Then report in person at the Counselling Board office on your scheduled date, with all required documents and fee.

2. When and where do I report?

- Time: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM
- Venue: UG/PG AYUSH Counselling Board, AYUSH BHAWAN, Room No. 214, Sector 26, Pratap Nagar, Jaipur – 302033

Date	Who reports
13.10.2026 (Tuesday)	All upgraded candidates and freshly allotted BAMS candidates
14.10.2026 (Wednesday)	BHMS / BUMS candidates
15.10.2026 (Thursday)	All BNYS candidates, and any remaining BAMS / BHMS / BUMS candidates

3. Can I report online or send someone on my behalf?

No. Reporting must be done in person at the Counselling Board office.

B. Upgraded Candidates

4. What should an upgraded candidate bring?

- Current round Allotment Letter
- Previous Round Admission -fee receipt
- The difference in fee, (if the new college's fee is higher than the amount already deposited by DD)
- Application form.

5. What happens if I am an upgraded candidate and do not report?

Candidates who have been upgraded must report in person to the Counselling Board on the prescribed date for admission to their newly allotted college. Failure to report will result in the cancellation of both the previously allotted seat and the newly allotted seat, as well as the forfeiture of the counselling fee.

6. In whose favour should the Demand Draft be made?

“CHAIRMAN AYUSH UG ADMISSION COUNSELLING BOARD, JAIPUR”

C. After Reporting

7. What do I do after reporting at the Counselling Board?

You must join the allotted college in person within three (3) working days of reporting.

D. Consequences of Non-Reporting

8. What happens if I do not report on my scheduled date?

Your allotted seat will be automatically cancelled. Non-appearance on the due date results in cancellation.

9. What happens if I report but do not bring all the required documents or fee?

Failure to comply with the reporting requirements will lead to cancellation of the allotted seat.

10. Will I lose my counselling fee if I do not report?

Yes. If you do not report on the scheduled date in the Second or any later round, or if you leave or surrender the allotted seat, the counselling fee / security amount will be forfeited.

12. What if my documents or information are found to be false?

At any stage, if the application information or any certificate or document is found false or incorrect:

- The Counselling Board may cancel your candidature.
- The entire fee deposited will be forfeited.
- Legal action may be initiated against you.

Disclaimer

The information provided in these FAQs is purely informative and intended to guide candidates for counselling purposes only. It does not carry any legal validity or binding effect. In case of any doubt or for authentic and confirmative information, candidates are advised to refer to the official Information Booklet or contact the Counselling Board directly.